Connexus Credit Union is Helping Those Affected by Recent Hurricanes

A donation has been made to the National Credit Union Foundation Disaster Relief Fund

Wausau, Wis. (Sept. 13, 2017) – Our thoughts and prayers are with those affected by the devastation of the recent hurricanes, and their aftermath, which includes thousands of our own members.

Connexus is a values-based organization that cares deeply about its members and is committed to act with integrity. Our compassion and caring nature, combined with our financial strength, compel us to assist those in need in any way we can.

Connexus Credit Union and the Connexus Association have donated a combined $25,000 to the relief efforts, including the National Credit Union Foundation Disaster Relief Fund and the American Red Cross. Connexus is also fully supporting American Red Cross donation efforts by actively promoting a donation site via ConnexusCU.org, Online & Mobile Banking, and social media.

To support victims well after the initial surge of donations and volunteerism begins to subside, Connexus will be attempting to make individual contact with our members in affected areas to help them resolve any financial issues they may have. In addition, we will be working with our employees, business partners, and local businesses to collect and deliver needed resources.

While reports of personal strife and loss continue to unfold, stories of heroism and compassion are now also beginning to surface. Connexus feels fortunate to join the many others around the country in helping victims regain some level of normalcy and security in their lives.
