Connexus Credit Union Holds 2018 Annual Meeting

Wausau, Wis. (June 15, 2018) – Connexus Credit Union held its 83rd Annual Meeting on June 13 at the Westwood Conference Center in Wausau, providing its member-owners with an annual update on the financial health and achievements of the organization in 2017.

The Annual Meeting was attended by the Connexus Board of Directors, employees, and members. Board Chair Ron Dins and Connexus President/CEO J. David Christenson both addressed attendees to highlight the credit union’s achievements in 2017.

The key themes throughout the meeting were simplicity, reliability, and relevancy, along with the ways in which Connexus had given back to members and the community in 2017. Christenson expressed gratitude for the contributions and support offered by both members and employees, which led to a highly successful year for the credit union.

“Our family values, along with our mission to help members achieve their personal financial objectives, stand as the foundation of our success. To help guide our progress over the last year, we emphasized the areas of simplicity, reliability, and relevancy in everything we did. From offering numerous new, innovative Digital Banking enhancements to being recognized as runner-up for Best Credit Union Anyone Can Join by Kiplinger Personal Finance magazine, 2017 truly offered exceptional benefits to our members,” Christenson said. “While 2017 exceeded expectations across the board, we believe that the best is yet to come – and we look forward to continuing on this rewarding journey with all of our members in 2018 and beyond.”
