Connexus Credit Union Recognized for Best Checking Account by NerdWallet

Wausau, Wis. (March 1, 2019) – Connexus Credit Union was recently recognized by NerdWallet as having one of the best checking account options in the country. Connexus' Xtraordinary Checking was highlighted for its $0 monthly fee, access to more than 54,000 free ATMs, and a competitive APY.

"Connexus is dedicated to offering member-owners convenient, easy-to-use checking account options," stated Connexus President/CEO J. David Christenson, "and the recognition from NerdWallet emphasizes the strides we've made in providing the products and services that members desire." In addition to the highlights mentioned, the Xtraordinary Checking account requires no minimum deposit, earns an APY as high as 1.75% for balances of up to $25,000 (if certain requirements are met), and can be accessed anywhere through the robust Digital Banking service and Connexus mobile app.

NerdWallet's article is the result of the analysis and comparison of numerous banks and credit unions to find the checking accounts that offer the best consumer-friendly features. A full list of the best checking accounts can be found on the NerdWallet website.
