CONNEXUS CREDIT UNION RECEIVES NATIONAL RECOGNITION FROM AMERICAN CANCER SOCIETY

Wausau, Wis. (February 12, 2021) – Connexus Credit Union has been recognized with two national awards for the organization’s Relay for Life fundraising efforts in 2020.

Team Connexus ranked 4th in the nation for the Nationwide Top Fundraising Award (teams of 50+ participants). Additionally, Team Connexus ranked 11th out of 39,493 teams in the nation for the Nationwide Team of Excellence Award. The team is also proud to hold the title for Top Fundraising Team in Wisconsin for the fourth year in a row.

In 2020, Connexus Credit Union donated $108,554 benefitting the American Cancer Society’s Relay for Life, while also serving as the sole presenting sponsor for the Relay for Life event in Wausau for the 14th consecutive year.

“At the heart of everything we do is the common purpose to support not just our members, but also our friends, families, and communities,” said Boyd Gustke, Connexus Credit Union President & Chief Executive Officer. “Connexus is committed to helping those who are affected by cancer, as it personally touches so many of us, and we look forward to exceeding Relay for Life fundraising goals once again in 2021. We’re encouraged to see the progress made as we continue raising the bar each year until the battle against cancer is won.”
