CONNEXUS CREDIT UNION REDUCES & ELIMINATES FEES AS GIVEBACK BENEFIT FOR MEMBER-OWNERS

Wausau, Wis. (June 24, 2021) – Connexus Credit Union recently unveiled a sweeping revamp of its fee schedule, including the reduction or elimination of over a quarter of the organization’s fees, as a giveback benefit for its member-owners.

“As a credit union, helping our member-owners achieve their financial goals is one of our top priorities,” stated Claire Meney, Senior Vice President of Member Experience at Connexus. “Our recent decision to absorb the expenses associated with many of the essential services we provide demonstrates our commitment to keeping as many dollars in our member-owners’ pockets as possible. Over time, even small fees add up, so we’re grateful to be in a position to offer an array of services at a reduced rate or completely free of charge – a benefit you won’t find at many other financial institutions.”

Services with fee reductions or eliminations include money market withdrawals (over the limit of four free per month); returned deposits; stop payments; loan payment changes or reversals; returned mail; document copies; replacement of debit or ATM cards; IRA closures; and Medallion Signature Guarantees.

Connexus has consistently reduced and eliminated fees over the past three years. Since 2018, its fee schedule modifications have saved Connexus member-owners over $500,000.
