CONNEXUS CREDIT UNION WINS SIX
FORBES ADVISOR'S BEST OF AWARDS

Wausau, Wis. (February 3, 2022) – Following a highly competitive evaluation of financial institutions across the country, Connexus was named the winner of six Best Of Awards by Forbes Advisor, including Best Money Market Accounts, Best CD Rates, Best Free Checking Accounts, Best Checking Account for Dividend Earnings, Best Checking Accounts for Customer Experience, and Best Savings Accounts for Customer Experience.

“As a member-owned credit union, we’re honored to be recognized alongside many of the country’s most respected financial institutions, including PenFed, Citibank, and Alliant,” said Chad Rogers, Executive Vice President and Chief Operating Officer at Connexus. “To be acknowledged across six categories for our competitive rates, low fees, robust and thoughtfully designed financial products, and best-in-class service demonstrates the incredible value we bring to our members – and inspires us to offer them even more exceptional experiences.”

In their review, Forbes Advisor highlighted Connexus’ high yields, attentive customer service, low fees, family-friendly accounts, and extensive nationwide accessibility. While not an official category, Forbes also praised the organization’s Digital Banking platform, noting the impressive rankings of the Connexus App on both the App Store and Google Play.

Rogers went on to say, "The extraordinary Digital Banking partnership we've developed with Alkami Technologies over the years continues to position us as a nationally relevant and trusted credit union for our roughly 390,000 members nationwide."

To select this year’s winners, Forbes Advisor analyzed “a mix of traditional brick-and-mortar banks, online banks, and credit unions,” ranking each in weighted categories including APY, fees, accessibility of funds, customer experience, and digital experience. Only nationally accessible financial institutions were considered.

Connexus is well-recognized for excellence in the financial industry by CNN Money, NerdWallet, Kiplinger, and Bankrate.com. A list of the organization’s most recent awards and recognition can be found on their website.
