CONNEXUS ANNOUNCES LAUNCH OF VA HOME LOANS & REFINANCES

Wausau, Wis. (May 17, 2022) – Connexus Credit Union announced its launch of VA Home Loans and Refinances specifically designed to assist qualified enlisted service members, veterans, and their spouses with the purchase or refinance of a home.

“As an organization, we take pride in giving back to our members and the communities we serve, and VA Loans will benefit an extraordinary group of individuals who sacrifice so much for all of us,” said Ariel Hubbert, Vice President of Direct Lending at Connexus. “With low to no down payment options and no private mortgage insurance, we look forward to helping our country’s military families achieve their home ownership goals.”

Offered in cooperation with the U.S. Department of Veterans Affairs, Connexus VA Home Loans feature competitive interest rates, up to 100% financing (with low or no down payment), and no private mortgage insurance requirements. For a limited time, qualified applicants can also enjoy a discount on closing costs. More information can be found on the company’s VA Home Loan & Refinancing page.
