To help the government fight the funding of terrorism and money laundering activities, federal law requires all financial institutions to obtain, verify, and record information that identifies each person who opens an account. What this means for you: When you open an account, we will ask for your name, address, date of birth, and other information that will allow us to identify you. We may also ask to see your driver's license or other identifying documents.

The account ownership is titled in the names of the Trust as designated on this Trust Account Ownership Agreement. Any Trustee may transact or pledge the account as security for obligations to the Credit Union. I/We grant the Credit Union a security interest in this account to secure all obligations the Trust may owe, now or in the future, and consent to applying any amount held in this account to any debt to the Credit Union. I/We understand and agree that this account and any withdrawal is subject to limitations imposed by law, rules of the payment clearing networks, Credit Unions bylaws, and the terms and conditions disclosed for this account, as amended from time to time.

I/We acknowledge receipt of the following agreements and disclosures: Important Account Information booklet containing Terms and Conditions, Electronic Fund Transfers Rights and Responsibilities, Your Ability to Withdraw Funds and the Truth-In-Savings Disclosure; Fee Schedule; Investment Rate Sheet; Privacy Policy.
